PROFILE

I am enthusiastic, dedicated and hard working. I am passionate about bringing people together through music. I love working with a range of ages, abilities and backgrounds. I have a generous spirit, always offering much patience and positivity to help individuals reach their potential. I love learning myself, always seeking challenges and finding the learning outcome in any situation. My style of teaching extends into mentorship, developing the inner and outer confidence of groups and individuals. I love having an impact on the community and making a difference in people lives through music. I strive for excellence in everything I do, maintain high professional standards and always undertake a job to the best of my abilities.
